ENTRANCE HYMN

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

There is a season for everything, and a time for every matter under heaven;

A time to be born, a time to die;

A time to plant, and a time pluck up what has been planted;

A time to kill and a time to heal.

A time to break down and a time to build up,

A time to weep, and a time to laugh,

A time to mourn, and a time to dance.

A time to throw stones away,

And a time to gather them together.

A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing,

A time to seek and a to lose,

A time to keep, a time to throw away,

A time to tear, and a time to sew

A time to love, and a time to hate,

A time for war, and a time for peace"

The word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

SECOND READING

A Reading from the first letter of St. John 4:7-12.17

My dear people, let us love one another since love comes from God and everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Anyone who fails to love can never have known God because God is love. God's love for us was revealed when God sent into the world his only Son so that we could have life through him; this is the love I mean: not our love for God, but God's love for us when he sent his Son to be the sacrifice that takes our sins away. My dear people, since God has loved us so much, we too should love one another. No One has ever seen God; but as long as we love one another God will live in us and his love will be complete in us. Love will come to its perfection in us when we face the day of Judgement without fear; because even in this world we have become as he is.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

REFLECTION

RECESSIONAL

Remember Me

Remember me when I am gone away, gone far away into the silent land; when you can no more hold me by the hand, nor I half turn to go yet turning stay. Remember me when no more day by day You tell me of our future that you plann'd: Only remember me; you understand it will be late to counsel then or pray. Yet if you should forget me for a while and afterwards remember, do not grieve:

for if the darkness and corruption leave a vestige of the thoughts that once I had, better by far you should forget and smile than that you should remember and be sad.
